

Assets-Liability Committee (ALCO)

The primary objective of the Asset Liability Committee is to manage the balance sheet of the bank in a way that minimizes the institution's exposure to risk while maximizing its returns. ALCO is responsible for monitoring and evaluating the various assets and liabilities of the institution, assessing their risk profiles, and making strategic decisions to achieve financial stability and growth.

Committee Members

- Chief Executive Officer/ Managing Director (Chairperson)
- Deputy Managing Director (Co-Chair)
- Head of Risk Management
- Head of Corporate Banking
- Head of Treasury
- Deputy Financial Controller
- Head of Credit
- Head of Audit
- Head of MD's Office (Secretary to the Committee)

